

Par. 3a(5): Records with a retention value of six years or less will be scheduled for destruction at the station. Records which must be retained for over six years after they are no longer used or are infrequently needed in the conduct of current business, will be transferred to the headquarters Records Center for storing, processing and servicing, regardless of security classification or sensitivity. The Center will also serve as the Agency archival facility.

Page Denied

Next 2 Page(s) In Document Denied